

CHAPTER FIVE On The Team: Spectators vs Players

RECAP

- “Sadly, far too many people have yet to hear Jesus’ invitation to full living. Perhaps even more tragic, among those who have heard, far too few really take Him up on that invitation. Many live on the fringes of faith, content to watch the drama of salvation and spiritual growth play out in the lives of people around them. They give an emotional or mental nod of assent to the truth they hear. But they never embrace that truth.”

DISCUSSION STARTERS

- Fire insurance or abundant life? Is your commitment to Christ a “get out of hell free” ticket or a chosen lifestyle?
- Report card time again. Go to the bullet point list of page 53 and honestly evaluate your commitment to each.
- Candidly discuss the difference between a salvation experience and lifetime commitment.
- Share your discoveries of the joy of being involved versus simply observing from the pew.
