

RECAP

- “One of the reasons men hesitate to seek God is the fear He will make them do something they don’t want to do or will dread. But our heart (Psalm 20:4; 21:2), we misinterpret those fulfilled desires as things. We really need to understand that God gives us the right desires to begin with when we commit our lives to Him.”

DISCUSSION STARTERS

- Discuss the ‘Burning Bush’ encounter when God’s plan is blatantly obvious. Ever experienced such? What were the results?
- What do you do when you feel like you are hearing from God but you do not like what you are hearing?
- “Success is not measured by titles or academic degrees or paychecks or the number of people under your authority.” Do you agree? How does this apply in your own life?
- How do you measure the success of others?

The author goes on to state concerning God’s will that “Patience is such a vital key here.” In your experience, is patience a virtue that you embrace or a challenge you face?
